Chief

I think the I.G.P's advice & classify records according to items mentioned in his letter is a good one. It may be necessary to secure Secretariat etc (class i) in vaults. This arrangement would be useful in peace time also. The Survey office also has to be brought into the Scheme. The Survey Supdt. may take this up as spl work and the Dev. Secy may co-operate with him in the work

OFFICE OF THE
INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE IN MYSORE,

No. A.R.P 2/41-42

Bangalore, dated September 3, 1941.

FROM

E. G. B. PEEL, ESQ. C.I.E.,
Inspector-General of Police in Mysore,
Bangalore.

The Chief Secretary
to the Government of Mysore,
Bangalore.

Subject: A.R.P. - Protection of valuable records.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that, with a view to the better protection of important and valuable official documents, the Bombay Government have classified the records in their Secretariat into three categories viz., (1) Important Sannads, documents etc., (2) Historical documents and (3) Administration records. Class (1) records are understood to have been deposited in the vaults of the Reserve Bank of India at a normal charge of Rs.5/- per annum. Selected documents in Class (2) have been removed to a place in the interior of the Province. Class (3) records will not be removed unless the war situation deteriorates gravely.

2. Although no immediate action is called for in Mysore, it is suggested that the records in the Secretariat and other Central Offices might be classified with a view to their removal to a place of safety at a later stage, if necessary.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

E. G. B. Peel

INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE.

A.R.P.Protection of valuable records.

Ref:- Your No.A.R.P.2/41-42 dated 12th September 1941.

The important and valuable records usually housed within the buildings of the Record Office in Madras have been transferred to Poonamallee, a village about 12 miles from Madras in the interior. The records are housed in a large well-constructed building which formerly was used as a barracks.
